Tasting Notes

This wine has a beguiling black and blue core with blood red eclipse rim. Nose smolders with graphite and iron over smokey mortadella sausage, pistachio, black pepper, and a fatty brine that burns off with time in the glass. Barnyard notes ebb and flow, giving way to purple flowers, creamy s'mores, and campfire essence. Hallmark notes of eucalyptus and brown sugar give way to tuberose and potpourri. Mouthfeel is dense and meaty like a seven layer Valrhona chocolate cake, full, rich and enveloping, leading to a long, lingering finish. Drink now through the end of time.

Suggested Pairing

Pairs equally well with a cheese course of Epoisse on a water cracker with blackberry preserves, or your favorite main course meat or game.
